Local Community Leader Paul Senory Selected to Attend the National Security Forum

Tampa Air Force Veteran and Co-owner of Sencommunications, Inc. Will Attend National Forum at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama

Tampa, FL, May 7, 2008: Paul Senory, Executive Vice President of Sencommunications, Inc., has received and accepted a personal invitation from the Secretary of the Air Force to attend the 55th Annual National Security Forum (NSF) at the Air War College, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. The purpose of NSF is to expose influential citizens to senior U.S. and international officers and civilian equivalents in order to engage each other's ideas and perspectives on Air Force, national and international security issues.

During the week of May 12-16, approximately 130 civilian leaders in business, education and government from all over the U.S. will meet with senior military leaders to explore current and future national security issues facing our nation. The NSF provides a great opportunity for an open and candid exchange of ideas among these guests, senior military and civilian leaders, and our Air War College students. Paul Senory will attend lectures, meet in seminars for in-depth discussions and participate in several social events including an air power demonstration.

The Air War College is the senior professional development school in the Air Force officer education system as a part of Air University. It educates selected senior officers to lead at the strategic level in the employment of air and space forces. The curriculum focuses on coalition warfighting and national security issues, with emphasis on the effective employment of aerospace in joint and combined combat operations.
