Press Release

Sencommunications®, Inc. Celebrates 8th Year as a Certified Women's Business Enterprise (WBE)

President Fran Senory of a local Telecommunications Company is re-certified by Women's Business Enterprise National Council.

Tampa, FL, October 6, 2009: Sencommunications®, Inc., a telecommunications company specializing in headsets, phones, conferencing units and VoIP products, renewed its national certification as a Women's Business Enterprise by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC). This recertification marks Sencomm's® eighth year as a certified Women's Business Enterprise which coincides with the company's 20th anniversary. Sencomm is also the only Premium Plantronics® Distributor that is a certified Women's Business Enterprise.

Sencommunications, founded by President Frances Senory in 1989, is recognized for passing a rigorous certification process, the WBENC, confirming that Sencomm is women-owned, managed and operated. Since its inception, Sencomm has grown to be a respected Women's Business Enterprise in the telecommunications industry. The company sought official certification from the WBENC in 2002, the year the organization partnered with Florida's Women's Business Development Center.

"It is extremely important to be re-certified every year. This is a huge benefit to our customers, being a WBE helps them meet their Supplier Diversity goals," states President Fran Senory. "But we also think it's about more than just meeting quotas—by supporting Supplier Diversity, our company is
